Child welfare agencies in Nevada believe families are the primary providers for children's needs. The safety and well-being of children is dependent upon the safety and well-being of all family members. Children, youth and families are best served when staff actively listens to them and invite participation in decision-making. We support full implementation of family centered practice by engaging families in child and family teams and offering individualized services to build upon strengths and meet the identified needs of the family.

V.	For Possible Action: Elect chair person.
VI	For Possible Action: Development of Strategic Plan objectives
VII.	Final Public Comment (Discussion only: Action may not be taken on any matter brought up under this agenda item until scheduled on an agenda for action at a later meeting.)
VIII.	Discussion: Recruitment of Additional Members and Meeting Dates
IX.	For Possible Action: Review and Approve proposed 2016 Meeting Dates
