

Clayton – March 2001

Clayton has an engaging and contagious smile. He enjoys playing on the Chess team, playing outside, and building anything he can get his hands on. He has made some awesome Lego creations! In the past he has played the clarinet and really enjoyed it. Clayton is social and outgoing and loves making conversation.

Clayton receives extra support in school to help him be successful. Clayton desires a permanent and loving home that encourages him to be all that he can be as he grows into adulthood.
