

Jason – May 2002

Jason is quiet and shy but when given time he will open up and his funny personality will shine through. He is a smart kid and does very well academically; his favorite subjects are science and history. Jason participates in several after school activities including science club and archery club. Other hobbies Jason enjoys are building with Legos, reading, basketball and football.

For more information about Jason or the adoption process, please email tsomers@dcfs.nv.gov