

Jason – May 2002

Jason describes himself as “honest and a lot of fun.” He is a smart kid and very capable academically. Jason loves football and wrestling and enjoys playing on a school team. He is most comfortable in a rural setting. Jason desires a permanent family that can help guide him into adulthood!

For more information about Jason or the adoption process, please email timothy.provost@dcfs.nv.gov