

Jordan
DOB: May 1998

Jordan is a fun loving young man who loves to talk and is very inquisitive. He loves to draw Dragon ball Z and Yu gi oh characters. He likes all kinds of foods, especially McDonalds. Jordan likes to make others happy and he gets along well with adults and peers. Jordan will need a family who provides strong boundaries and structure in the home. He will need a family who is willing to continue his services and IEP regarding his special needs and special education.

Jordan desires to be adopted. He needs a forever family that will accept him and be a positive influence for him. He would do well as an only child or as the youngest in the home. He needs a family that is 100% committed to providing him permanency and stability.

If you are that special family and would like more information about Jordan or the adoption process, please email josterhout@dcfs.nv.gov
