

Luis- April 2000

Luis is a mild mannered and likeable young man. Most days you can find him playing video games on his down time. Luis has an Individualized Education Plan to support his educational goals. He is a caring person and he enjoys volunteer work.

Luis is making strides to overcome past trauma. He has siblings he would like to stay in some sort of contact with. Luis is a teenager who needs permanent connections as he grows into adulthood.

For more information about Luis or the adoption process, please email josterhout@dcfs.nv.gov