

Paris – April 2006
Olivia – June 2010
Carter – September 2016

Paris loves to make others laugh. She likes to sing, dance, swim, and play sports. She is very artistic and loves crafting. She enjoys the academic aspect of school and also really enjoys her band class. Olivia likes to dance and she enjoys gymnastics. She has a great imagination and loves playing with her dolls. She is very caring and generous. Olivia enjoys school and does well. Baby brother Carter loves walking and talking! He is happy and playful. He needs to continue to be monitored for his special medical needs. These three are very close and need a permanent home together!
