

Randy
DOB: January 2004

Randy is a bright eyed handsome young man. He has a passion for learning and an appetite for reading anything from poetry to fantasy to astrology. In school, he enjoys writing poetry, learning about Science and Astrology, and studying rocks and crystals in Geography class. Some of his hobbies include listening to music, going camping, playing video games, and watching the news to learn more about politics. Randy is not picky when it comes to food. He likes Chinese, Mexican and Italian food. He especially loves to cook and bake. His specialty is Chicken Alfredo! Randy has close family connections that he would like to keep. Randy desires a loving family where he can learn more about himself and still be included in family dynamics.

If you are that family, please reach out to Randy's recruiter today at adoptionrecruiter@dcfs.nv.gov to learn more about Randy and the adoption process!
