

Meet Arikah!
July 2008
Legally Free

Arikah is a social butterfly who is inquisitive and engaging. She is an animal lover and loves to ride horses. She has a great imagination and loves to draw and write in her journals. Arikah enjoys playing outside and hunting for lizards. She is in the 5th grade and does well in school. She is very intelligent and needs to be challenged. Arikah would benefit from flexible parents who will never give up on her ever! All family types will be considered, however this independent girl wants to be the center of attention and would do best as a single child.

For more information on Arikah or the adoption process, please email timothy.provost@dcs.nv.gov