

Starr & Robert- March 2014 & January 2012

These two cuties are Starr and Robert! Robert loves being active, especially outside. He loves playing sports or riding his bike. He and Starr both love socializing and get along well with both adults and children. Starr loves to be independent. She would love it if you play dress up with her and her dolls! She also loves taking care of her pets. Both Starr and Robert love to help out and do well keeping busy and active with activities. These two would love to find a caring, loving and patient home to call their own!
