

Scholarship Request for Effective Legal Representation
Susan Roske

Susan Roske from Clark County Public Defender's office is requesting two $350 stipends which will cover up to $250 transportation and $100 for one night hotel room. The conference is free. There are two attorneys in Reno that would like to go. One recipient is from Washoe Public Defender's Office and the other recipient from the Washoe Alternate Public Defender. They will receive 8 general CLE credits and 1 credit in ethics. All training is in relation to effective juvenile delinquency representation.

The training will be held at the Boyd School of Law In Las Vegas, Nevada in June.

The $700.00 request will be funded out of the Juvenile Justice Commission budget.
