PIP ITEM 4.1.4 (B)

Develop Nevada Based Trainers that can be certified to deliver the training for child welfare supervisors/managers across the state

Nevada has chosen to adopt and implement the supervisory training curriculum developed by Marsha Salus. She previously provided this supervisory training to Clark County Department of Family Services (CCDFS), Washoe County Department of Social Services (WDSS) and Division of Child and Family Services (DCFS) supervisory staff. Ongoing training will be implemented through the Nevada Partnership for Training. Marsha Salus has trained the following University trainers to provide supervisory training, using her training curriculum:

University of Nevada, Las Vegas

Toni Chance, MSW, UNLV
Mikki Murray, LCSW, UNLV

University of Nevada, Reno

Aaron Blackham, MSW, LSW, UNR
Patty Neely, MSW, LSW, UNR

The next Supervisory Training series will begin in March 2012 for supervisory staff at CCDFS as well as WDSS and Rural DCFS.
