

Congratulations to our 2017 VOCA Awardees!

The Victims of Crime Act dollars support innovative programming in nonprofit and public agencies that provide direct services to victims of crime. The agencies listed below provide programs to assist with all types of crime victimization; legal assistance to victims; child advocacy; sexual assault victim advocates; and other direct services to victims. In addition VOCA funding supports programs directed to youth, teen, and college age victims; and programs assisting the elderly along with male victims of domestic violence and sexual assault.

Listed below are those Nevada providers receiving Victims of Crime Assistance funds for SFY 2017
