

Dakota

DOB: December 2007

Dakota is an enthusiastic kid with a great smile! He has a playful sense of humor. Building, exploring, shopping, and fluffy animals are some of his favorite things. Dakota loves giving gifts to people and sharing what he has. He is very generous and affectionate! If your family has a stocked game closet, Dakota is sure to be in seventh heaven! This kiddo loves playing board games and even enjoys card games. Dakota is said to be a creative child who enjoys being artistic and delights in drawing. He likes building things of all shapes and sizes. Movies are one of Dakota's favorite ways to wind down. Dakota can be reserved and quiet at times, but he can also be open and talkative. Sweet and loving, he dreams of having permanency. Dakota has positive relationships with adults. Dakota is in the eighth grade.

Dakota would do best in a family in which he is the youngest child in the home; however, his caseworker will consider all family types.

If you are interested in learning more about Dakota, please reach out to his recruiter today at adoptionrecruiter@dcfs.nv.gov