

Dakoda – December 2007

Meet Dakota!

Dakoda is an enthusiastic kid with a great smile! Reading, playing a good board game or card game, and watching movies are some of Dakota's favorite activities. You can find Dakota drawing in his free time as he is quite the artist. Dakota likes to be active and would love the opportunity to play more sports such as basketball and baseball. He can be reserved and quiet at times, but he can also be open and talkative. Dakota would thrive in a two-parent home in which he is the youngest child; however, all family types will be considered. Dakota is ready to unpack for the last time and find his permanent family!
