

Delilah

DOB: January 2011

Delilah is a sweet girl, who is outgoing and bubbly. She is very artistic and loves drawing and painting.

She enjoys cooking, baking, camping, and video games. Delilah is smart and does well in school. She typically earns A's and B's. She is very headstrong and wants to be independent in everything she does. She has friends and gets along well with others. She describes herself as a helper and loves to help her friends. Delilah is on the flag football team at school and would like to get involved in cheerleading.

Delilah enjoys wearing makeup and loves wearing mascara, but she does keep her makeup light.

Delilah desires to be the only child or the youngest in the home. She would love hands on parents who take an interest in her schooling as well as other aspects of her life and want to help her. She needs a family that is playful and affectionate but can also uphold the rules and keep her safe. She loves animals and would thrive in a home where there are animals. She would like to have her own pet or dog.

Animals are her safe place. She enjoys sweets, cakes, pies, Nutri-grain bars, tacos, and nachos but she does not like the shredded cheese on them. Delilah does not like mushrooms, zucchini, or squash.

Delilah really likes traveling and would like the opportunity to travel with her adoptive family. She would do well with a family that allows her freedoms of self-expression such as dying her hair different colors.

She has her own personality and needs a family that lets her express herself. She would do well in a home with structure, boundaries, and consistency, an active trauma-informed family who are patient and kind, will enroll her in activities, and will maintain contact with her sibling.

If you are interested in learning more about Delilah, please reach out to her recruiter at adoptionrecruiter@dcfs.nv.gov