

Commercially Sexually Exploited Children (CSEC) Mandated Reporter Reference Guide

- In addition to mandated reporting requirements set forth in NRS 432B.220, mandated reporters are required by NRS 432C.110 to make a report to a child welfare agency if a person “knows or has reasonable cause to believe that a child is a commercially sexually exploited child” shall report the commercial sexual exploitation of the child to an agency which provides child welfare services.
 - ALSO: If an alleged perpetrator of a CSEC child is or is alleged to be present with the child, or if the child is otherwise in IMMINENT danger, the mandated report must immediately contact a law enforcement agency to report the commercial sexual exploitation of the child and then contact the local child welfare agency.
- Mandated reporters must make a report as soon as reasonably practicable but not later than 24 hours after they know or have reason to believe that a child has been a victim of CSEC.
 - Please note: NRS 432B.240 Penalty for failure to make report. Any person who knowingly and willfully violates the mandated reporting requirements in NRS 432B.220 is guilty of, for the first violation, a misdemeanor & for each subsequent violation, a gross misdemeanor
