FUNDING USES - INFORMATION BASED ON THOSE STATES WHO REPORTED INFORMATION

Sub Grants:

- The majority of states conducts a Request for Proposal and funds multiple sub grants
 - Most state fund program areas based on the State Advisory Groups 3-year-plan goals
- One state funds one grantee to provide an alternative to detention
- One state funds one or two grants for system improvement
- One state grant's directly to Tribes, DMC, and reintegration services

Other Funding Uses:

- One state is out of compliance with sight and sound separation, so ½ of funding goes to education, training, and eventual compliance with that.
- Less than 5% of states use the Planning and Administration allocation which is 10% of the total grant
- One state funds 100% salary for a full time DMC Coordinator
- Roughly one-half of states fund a full time or part time compliance monitor with grant funds
- Most states use a portion of grant funds for compliance monitoring which includes staff and travel

SUMMARY

- Formula Grant funds are used for sub grants, program projects, and compliance
